DMI ANNOUNCES KEY PRESENTERS FOR RISK MITIGATION FORUM

Posted March 13, 2017 by DMI News Center

North Sioux City, South Dakota – March 15, 2017 - On April 19-21, Districts Mutual Insurance and Risk Management Services will be sponsoring their first Risk Mitigation Forum at the picturesque Osthoff Resort in Elkhart Lake, WI.

The Forum features sessions on a variety of higher education risk management topics; lead by subject matter experts. Over sixteen (16) interactive sessions will be conducted by industry leading experts during the forum. The roster of presenters includes:

Gary Langsdale, University Risk Officer at Penn State University, will deliver a key note address titled “Getting a Seat for Risk Discussions at the Table”. And as a session leader, Gary will lead the discussion titled “You want to do WHAT?”

Jennifer Whittington, Executive Director of the University Risk Management Insurance Association (URMIA), will detail “Everything You’ve Wanted to Know about URMIA and MORE!”

Aaron Lundberg, President and CEO of Praesidium, will share best practices on the issue of “Managing the Risk of Minors on Campus”.

Mark Greisiger, President of NetDiligence, will elaborate on one of today’s growing hot topics: “The Cyber Risk Landscape and Impact on Technical Colleges.”

Charlie Kingdollar, the Sr. Emerging Issues Analyst at General Reinsurance Corporation, will illuminate Forum attendees on “Emerging issues in the Commercial Insurance World”, as the Forum’s closing speaker on Friday, April 21st.

Numerous other topical thought leaders will be on hand to share their knowledge of Risk Management, Environmental Health & Safety, and Campus Security.

Districts Mutual Insurance & Risk Management Services’ President, Steven Stoeger-Moore, encourages “the Wisconsin Technical College Members to join in what will surely be an informative interactive program. Hope to see you at the Risk Mitigation Forum!”
